

Whittingham Lives Hidden Histories: Alternative Futures Study Day

THURSDAY 12th OCTOBER 2017

University of Central Lancashire, 53 Degrees Venue, Brook St, Preston PR1 7BQ

From 10:00am Registration Tea and Coffee

AT 53 DEGREES:

Musical entertainment by 'A Latin Affair' supported by Music & The Mind

10:30am – 12:00pm

WORKSHOP Organising an Archive on Mad People's History - Geoffrey Reaume, University of Toronto

WORKSHOP Creating an Artwork for Whittingham: Using Archives as Creative Inspiration artist Kate Eggleston-Wirtz and R. B. Cornwell, Railway Expert

AT LANCASHIRE ARCHIVES (Bow Lane, Preston, PR1 2RE):

WORKSHOP Caring for the Whittingham Archive led by staff from Lancashire Archives

 PLEASE NOTE ALL Morning workshops should be booked in advance (separate to your Eventbrite booking) by emailing contact@whittinghamlives.org.uk or through our website <http://whittinghamlives.org.uk/whittingham-lives-workshop/>

As this is a FREE event please note, lunch is NOT provided.

The Atrium Café is within walking distance and there are ample cafes in the local vicinity.

12.30-1.30 Music kindly provided by Music & The Mind

From 1pm MAIN STUDY DAY Registration

Refreshments will be available

1:30pm Welcome words and Introductions to Whittingham Hospital

Mick McKeown, University of Central Lancashire School of Nursing
Heather Tierney-Moore, OBE, Chief Executive, Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust
Kathryn Newman, Archivist, Lancashire County Archives

2:00pm - 2:30pm Preserving & Promoting Mad People's History

Geoffrey Reaume, York University, Toronto

2:35pm – 3:05pm Breakout Sessions (Choose ONE)

Whittingham, Malaria Treatment and Ethics

Graham Ash, Whittingham Lives & Natalie Mullen, University of Lancaster

Whittingham Wardrobes: Clothing as Narrative in Remembering and Forgetting

Carole Hunt & Alex Hurst, University of Central Lancashire School of Art & Design with Liz Lewis Whittingham Lives Volunteer

Organising the National Asylum Workers Union

Mick McKeown, University of Central Lancashire School of Nursing

The Psychiatric (Mis)treatment of Lesbians and Bisexual Women in the UK (1952-1992)

Helen Spandler, Asylum Magazine & University of Central Lancashire

3:05pm – 3:35pm BREAK Refreshments

3:40pm - 4:10pm Breakout Sessions (Choose ONE)

After Whitchurch Project, Elaine Paton

Whittingham Railway, David Hindle, Preston Historical Society

Patient Autonomy in the 19th Century, Natalie Mullen, University of Lancaster

Oor Mad History, Anne O'Donnell

4:15pm – 4:45pm Closing Comments & Feedback

Walk to Michelin Kenyon Cinema

5:00pm Cinema Screening of Ray Gosling's Documentary on Whittingham Hospital

(LIMITED NUMBERS please ensure you register on arrival –places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis)

5:35pm– 6:00pm Discussion led by Malcolm Rae OBE former Whittingham Staff member and Bob Dickinson BBC Journalist, friend & colleague of Ray Gosling

6:00pm CLOSE

OPPORTUNITY: Why not stay on and enjoy a FREE cinema screening of Trolls at 6.30pm run by the 1-in-4 Film Festival at UCLAN

If you have mobility issues please let us know in advance and a member of our team will be happy to assist you E contact@whittinghamlives.org.uk

For information on the day please contact Sue Flowers 07940775290.

A map is available showing the UCLAN venues we are using, each marked with a RED DOT.